

KREISS FOOT STOOL OR OTTOMAN WITH ROSE TARLOW STRIPED VELVET FABRIC

BEN-004

Kreiss ottoman, upholstered exclusively for THE TASTEMAKER SHOPPE, with Rose Tarlow green-and-gold striped cut-velvet fabric and cord trim. A tailored pleated skirt with contrasting gold-bronze trim adds understated luxury, a polished sophisticated finish. The velvet fabric is no longer being made making it more specialty and found. There's not one other like it. Whether used as a footrest or extra seating, this ottoman embodies casual Spanish Santa Barbara-style elegance.

Rose Tarlow is an Interior Designer, tastemaker, antiquarian, and author, with an exclusive line of furniture and textiles; her Melrose House showrooms are based LA and NY. She's known for mixing traditional and modern aesthetics with casual elements like reclaimed wood, French oak beams, plaster, and stone. She blends antiques with minimalism, creating chic lived-in interiors. Her A-List clients include David Geffen, Oprah, Barbara Walters, and others. Editor, Marian McEvoy wrote in Veranda Magazine that Tarlow, Albert Hadley, Jacques Grange, Michael Taylor, Renzo Mongiardino, and John Stefanidis, were six interior designers who had an "enormous impact on the design world". She's been featured in nearly every important architecture and design publication and has won many honorable design awards. As a Curator and Interior Designer, these are the timeless, design qualities I seek, knowing they will transcend time, always in style, never trendy. A treasured find for collectors and interior design enthusiasts!
