

NEOCLASSICAL ART-DECO STYLE PAIR OF PEDESTALS STANDS WITH GREEK KEY MOTIF

PED-002

A fabulous pair of Mid-Century Art-Deco style pedestal stands. Hand-crafted with Neoclassical Greek keys and gold accents with a faux-bois technique mimicking finely grained wood, adding warmth and texture to their sculptural silhouettes. They could be used as cocktail or side tables, perfect for smaller spaces. Very solid and heavyweight.

Their storied provenance adds to the allure, owned by award winning soap opera screenwriters and producers Jerome and Bridget Dobson. Bridget grew up in the industry, she was the daughter of Frank and Doris Hursley, the developers and creators of General Hospital. Jerome and Bridget collaborated on soap operas and drama series, they were known for great storytelling and strong character development for daytime and prime time dramas like Dallas, Dynasty, General Hospital, Guiding Light, As The World Turns, and more. Their company Dobson Productions created 'Santa Barbara' soap opera. A great find for collectors and interior design enthusiasts with an entertaining story to tell!
