

BEAUTIFUL ANTIQUE BRASS SCALE ON PORTOFINO MARBLE BASE, MADE IN ITALY

OBJ-005

A classic antique scale with polished Portofino marble base with fluted aged-brass stem and etched fittings, hand-made in Italy. A great accessory especially for kitchens, the use of marble and the scale's function make it charming and applicable... which is hard to do in a kitchen without looking staged. It's equally relevant and great for offices, on bookshelves, countertops, or fireplace mantels. It has a tiny chip on the base – This slight imperfection does not detract from its beauty but rather adds to the scale's authenticity as an antique. A beautiful hand-crafted Italian scale, a timeless accessory that is becoming harder and harder to find in today's world.
