

VINTAGE WATERWORKS SCALLOPED CERAMIC TRAY

SER-002

A vintage soft ivory-white ceramic tray in a matte finish, by Waterworks. This unique tray has a feminine curved scalloped-edge detailing and a sleek plinth base. It's reminiscent of French Art-Deco design elements. Perfectly suited for a variety of settings especially bathrooms, kitchens or a bedside table, its versatile design allows it to blend seamlessly with traditional and modern minimalist interiors. This piece is even more "specialty and found" because it was a limited edition, no longer in production, making it more unique and collectable. As a Curator and Interior Designer, these are the timeless qualities I seek – knowing it will transcend time, always in style, never trendy.
