

ANTIQUÉ C. 1800'S LOUIS XIII SIDE OR COCKTAIL TABLE, BY MERKLEN BROS.

TAB-030

A great side or cocktail table made by Merklen Bros, c.1800's. During the late 19th century, Merklen Bros introduced elaborately turned furniture to America influenced by French Louis XIII-style. The table's signature detail, double spiral, open-twist canted legs - is the kind of woodworking detail that is virtually impossible to replicate today. The tabletop has a spiral rope molding around the apron, mirroring the twisted leg silhouette. A great table for those who desire casual understated luxury, especially perfect for homes with traditional Spanish architecture. Originally crafted as a library table, this piece dates from the 1800's and has since been adapted into a side table. Its cast brass feet were removed, and the spherical terminations were carefully shaved down making it more casual, less ornate. A treasured find for interior design enthusiasts of unique pieces that bring history and personality to your home.

We know it's hard to find one-of-a-kind pieces! Shop our listings for new inventory curated from an Interior Architect and Designer's POV. THE TASTEMAKER SHOPPE offers an exclusive mix of furnishings founded solely on good taste, not limited by any style or era!

W: 40" x D: 27" x H: 24"

